Third Big League Kills Cleveland's Chance for 1914 Pennant.

THREE HURLERS SIGNED

Falkenberg, Kahler, and Blanding Are Pitching Mainstays Claimed by Gilmore Crew.

Special to The Washington Herald. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 27.—According to in formation that comes pretty straight, the chances of Cleveland winning the 1914 flag in the American League have been knocked into a cocked hat. It's a certainty that the Federal Leaguers have signed Cy Falkenberg. George Kahler, and Fred Blanding, three of the mainstays of the Cleveland buriing department. Charles Somers, owner of the Cleveland club, was in Chicago today and admitted that he believed that his three pitchers have jumped.

Somers spoke right out like a man and showed no signs of having shed tears over the announcement that he has lost or he was to lose three of his star huri-Neither did Mr. Somers try to think believe that his athletes had not gone the outlaws. In fact, he remarked: believe they've jumped."

At Federal League headquarters it was impossible to confirm the story. President Gilmore spent the day in Toronto and Charles Weeghman, local promoter, had no authority to talk concerning league affairs. However, Mr. Somers said that he learned that Falkenberg was slated for the Indianapolis club, Kahler for Pittsburgh, and Blanding for Buffalo. Johnson was closeted this afternoon with Somers and was too busy to see the newspaper men when they made their daily call. It is quite apparent that everything is not sunshine and roses in American League circles. However, Ban Johnson stood up in front of the shot and shell that came from the National eague guns during the war of 1901, and eral League powder.

Offer Falky $20,000.

Cleveland. Ohio, Jan. 27.-Cleveland sporting writers today, after talking with Fred Falkenberg, Cleveland American League star pitcher, voiced the belief that he has signed with the Federal League. Long Cy returned from Chicago, where he conferred with President Gilmore, of

New York, Jan. 27.—The luck was against King Georges subjects in the international bouts at Madison Square Garden tonight. Sapper O'Neill and Garden tonight. Sapper O'Neill and Owen Moran, rated as top-notchers in England, both went down to defeat. Moran, who has just returned from conquests in Australia and California, quit at the end of the seventh round of his slashing fight with Young Joe Shug-his siashing fight with Young Joe Shug-rue, of Jersey City.

Moran said Shugrue had fouled him earlier in the round. The referee had seen the blow and had not considered it foul. Anyway, the pace was gradually telling on Moran, and Shugrue was forg-ing to the front. It was clear that Moran is not the man he was when he made his unmatched record of knocking out Bat-tling Nelson.

Uling Nelson.

Johnny Dunidee dealt a terrific body lacing to Sapper O'Neill, who has won every bout he fought in this country up to tonight. In the last round the Sap-per shook Dundee with three solid punches to the face proving his recupera-tive powers, but nevertheless he was a badly beaten boy at the finish. And his conquerer weighed 125 pounds, against Sapper's surprising bulk of 125.

An eight-club league demands at least to wait until after the spring training one hundred and sixty players. Each of season is over. This further means that the clubs must have about twenty players on its personnel. It must have nine will have the benefit of the spring school-regulars and about five extra pitchers. On the whole the prospects of the new league are not so bright as without taking into consideration the some may have been led to believe.

By C. W. SWAN,

Manager Griffith yesterday received a elegram from Clyde Milan in which the National's star outfielder stated that he had not signed with the Federal League and had never been offered terms by President Glimore's organization.

This puts to rest the story sent out of Al Handiboe, former star outfielder Pittsburgh last night to the effect that of the Commissioner team, led all the Milan had signed with the Federal local boys playing professional ball last

Another story sent out from Chicago last night stated that Dan Moeller, Griff's right fielder, had signed with the Federals. According to Griff, Moeller is just as safe from the clutches of the Federals as Milan. "Moeller would never leave me without telling me," said Griff.

The Federal League is getting one thing this winter and that is advertising, and plenty of it at that. The space the Federal League has been taking up in the papers throughout the country could not be bought for a lot of real money, and when the time comes to play bull the majority of the "signing of Star So-and-So" will be found to be advertising.

Test Case of Boxers Tried Before Prince George County Officials

Allows Bouts to Be Staged. Boxing before members of the Ardmore Athletic and Social Club, at Ardmore were tried before a magistrate in Prince of Sprinters in a mile and twenty George County. Sheriff Hardy arrested two boxers and Promoter Phillips. It was proven to the satisfaction of the court that the club, operating under its charter, was within the law in staging scientific boxing bouts, and that it is that the club, operating under its charter.

that the club, operating under its charter, was within the law in staging scientific boxing bouts, and that in the future the shows at Ardmore will be staged without interference of any sort.

Sheriff Hardy made this case a test case just to prove to the satisfaction of himself as much as any one else that the shows at Ardmore were legal. He made a determined effort to prove his case, but the charter of the club was feund to be perfect, hence there was no action taken.

In the show February 5, Tommy Lowe is scheduled to meet Andy Cortez, of New York, in the main bout. Yesterday Jerry McCarthy, as manager of Tommy Lowe, signed the agreement, but Al McMurray, manager of Andy Cortex, has failed to send his agreement back to Phillips as yet. This show will comprise a fifteen-round, and possibly another bout of six or four rounds.
